WEATHER PROGNOSIS.—For this section fair and warmer tonight; Thursday probably showers; light variable winds.

EPISCOPAL HIGH SCHOOL.—The joint celebration of the Fairfax and Blackford Literary Societies of the Episcopal High School was held last night in Liggett Hall, on the school grounds. A large number of friends from this city, and vicinity and from a distance were present. During the evening music was furnished. The presiding officers were: President of Fairfax Society, W. H. S. Burgwyn, Jr., of North Carolina; President of Blackford Society, J. Richard Phillips, Jr., of Maryland. The following was the program:

Prayer. Address of welcome by the president of Fairfax Society, W. H. S. Burgwyn, Jr.; presentation of the F. L. S. debater's medal to Alexander W. Williams of Washington; presentation of the B. L. S. debater's medal to Oscar DeWolf Bass of Illinois; presentation of the F. L. S. debater's medal to Paul Micon of Petersburg; presentation of the B. L. S. debater's medal to John Monroe Daniel, Jr. of West Virginia; presentation of the F. L. S. debater's medal to Samuel W. Zimmer of Petersburg; presentation of the B. L. S. debater's medal to John Monroe Daniel, Jr. of West Virginia; presentation of the F. L. S. debater's medal to Samuel W. Zimmer of Petersburg; presentation of the B. L. S. debater's medal to John Monroe Daniel, Jr. of West Virginia.

The commencement exercises of the Episcopal High School took place this evening. The programme which was interspersed with music was as follows:

Prayer; delivery of certificates; Gaudeamus; presentation of prizes—reading, at sight, second prize, D. Kerson's Moths and Butterflies, 1 vol. 8 vo., illustrated; to Paul Micon, of Fairfax county; first prize, A. W. Williams, of Washington; for reading, second prize, F. W. Powell, of Leesburg; first prize, Samuel W. Zimmer, of Petersburg; for declamation, second prize, C. K. Pulles, of Portsmouth; first prize, J. M. Blackford, of Fairfax county; for scholarship, White prize, J. M. Blackford, of Fairfax county; Paul Micon, of Fairfax county; John Phillips, of Maryland; R. P. Williams, Jr., of Washington; Meade prize, A. W. Williams, of Washington. Reading, recitation and declamation: Francis W. Powell read Bardell vs. Pickwick; Clifford K. Pulles recited Macbeth's Child; Samuel W. Zimmer read How the La Rue Stakes were Lost; John Miner Blackford declaimed The Battle of Chickamauga.

Presentation of medals: Rudolph Fairfax memorial prize medal, for excellence in general scholarship, to A. W. Williams, of Washington; Pembroke L. Toon memorial prize medal, for excellence in historical essays, to Paul Micon, of Fairfax county; Robert Taylor Wilson prize medal, for excellence in English composition, to A. W. Williams, of Washington; Llewellyn Hoxton memorial prize medal, for excellence in mathematics, to L. D. Crenshaw, of Baltimore; William Garrett Bibb prize medal, for excellence in Shakespeare, Paul Micon, of Fairfax county; H. S. Liggett memorial junior prize medal, for excellence in general scholarship, to J. S. Rust, of Alexandria; Francis Edward Carter, of Richmond; John Monroe Daniel, Jr., of West Virginia; John Daniel Kutz, of Fairfax county; Alexander Watson Williams, of Washington; Gloria in Excelsis, Blessing; dulce domum.

MR. GREEN RESIGNS.—Rev. Bryman Green of Christ Church, who was yesterday elected full professor of the English Bible at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near this city, later in the day notified the committee of trustees of that institution, who informed him of his election, that he would accept the position after he had resigned as the rector of Christ Church. Today Mr. Green placed his resignation in the hands of the officers of that church, to take effect on July 1. Mr. Green has been rector of Christ Church for the past six years, and during his rectorship he has manifested at all times and under all circumstances the Christian scholar and gentleman, requisites for the position he has so ably and satisfactorily filled. While the members of his immediate flock regret the circumstances which render it necessary for him to sever his relations as his pastor, the entire community will be loath to see him leave Alexandria. At the same time they are profuse in their wishes that success may abundantly crown his efforts in his new position, and being located not far from Alexandria, he may still be a familiar figure in our midst.

ANOTHER CHARGE.—Several weeks ago Mr. Samuel Wingfield's saloon, northwest corner of Duke and Fayette streets, was broken open and robbed of liquor, money, tobacco, &c. William Bright was arrested on suspicion of committing the robbery, and the circumstantial evidence against the accused was of a nature to warrant the Mayor in sending him on to the grand jury. Since his confinement in jail it has been discovered that he has a razor in his possession which was carried away from a barber shop conducted by a colored man named Triplett when it was burglarized last February.

DISMISSED.—A white man, an old offender, was picked up in a disempered condition last night by the police. He was arraigned in the dock of the Police Court this morning, and said his helpless state last night was due more to sickness than stimulants. He said he had not been feeling well and drank moderately of beer, gin and whisky, after which he became oblivious to his surroundings. He had been locked up about ten hours and the Mayor, concluding that he had been sufficiently punished, dismissed him.

CITED TO APPEAR.—Mayor Simpson having been informed that certain persons have during the past day or two made openings in the streets without first obtaining the necessary permits this morning directed Officer Griffin to cite the delinquents to appear in the Police Court tomorrow morning and show cause why they should not be fined. Several openings have, it is said, been recently made without meeting the requirements of the law, and the Mayor intends to enforce the law against all offenders.

PERSONAL.—Misses Etta Jasper and Zaidie Lindsay left yesterday for North Wilkesboro, N. C., on a visit. The Misses Barnes are spending a week with Mrs. White on Seminary Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Angelo have issued cards for the marriage of their daughter, Bernice Elizabeth Angelo, and Joseph Wimer Wightman, which will take place Wednesday evening, June 25, at the residence of the bride's parents, 301 north Washington street. Rev. Carl Grammer, of Norfolk, will tonight preach the annual mission sermon at the Episcopal Theological Seminary.

Mrs. W. M. Smith, who was so seriously hurt by being thrown from a buggy, is rapidly recovering.

ODD FELLOWS' HOME.—In accordance with the resolution adopted at the session of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., at Portsmouth last month, and pursuant to the call issued by W. D. Hill, Grand Master of Virginia, the Board of Trustees of the Odd Fellows' Home, of Virginia, of which P. M. Bradshaw, Grand High Priest of Potomac Lodge, of this city, is a member, held a meeting yesterday and elected Governor Montague president, and P. M. Bradshaw secretary. Later a charter was granted the home by the Richmond Circuit Court. The site for the home has not been fixed.

ROYAL ARCANUM.—George Mason Council, Royal Arcanum, last night celebrated the 25th anniversary of the organization of that order, and an enjoyable evening was spent by all present. Among those present were Grand Regent Arnold (who paid the council an official visit), special Deputy D. R. Kemp, W. T. Dabney, Regent of Shockoe Council, Richmond, and Rev. E. V. Regeater, of Baltimore.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Mr. Susan R. Cooke, whose death occurred Sunday night, will take place this evening at half-past five o'clock from Grace Church. Rev. C. E. Ball will conduct the services. The pallbearers will be Messrs. Clarence Moore, James Smith, Frederick Kaur, Geo. W. Francis, R. H. Atkinson and Edward Rice, of Washington.

DEATH OF COL. LEE.—Col. Richard H. Lee, of Millwood, Clark county, died at his home at that place last night. The deceased was 83 years old. He was a son of the late Edmund I. Lee and brother of the late Cassius F. Lee, of this city. His funeral will take place from his late residence tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

FINE FOR FIGHTING.—William Dudley and William Edney, two colored individuals, became involved in a fight near the old bridge pump Sunday evening. Dudley was captured last night and this morning he was brought before the Mayor and fined $2.50. Edney has not been found.

NEW WHEAT.—The first new wheat of the season arrived here yesterday. It was a one-hundred-bushel lot, came from R. L. Clark, of Westmoreland county, and was consigned to Mr. T. W. Robinson, who sold it to the Globe mill for 85 cents a bushel—3 cents above Baltimore quotations.

LOCAL BREVITIES.
Two lodgers were at the station house last night.
The work on King street, between Union and the Strand, is progressing rapidly.
The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held tonight.
The schooner Thomas J. Parks is being loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., of Cone river.

Elena, the little daughter of Mr. Mark Norris, fell yesterday and sprained her hip. She was attended by Dr. Klipstein.

Some excitement was caused in front of the old City Hotel today by the shooting of a big dog belonging to Mr. Edward Clark, of Del Ray, by Mr. H. L. Stidder. The big dog had attacked a little dog belonging to Mr. Stidder. Later Mr. Clark swore out a warrant against Mr. Stidder.

A horse attached to a buggy containing two ladies ran away near Arlington yesterday evening and smashed the vehicle. The ladies were taken to the hospital at Fort Myer where they received surgical attention.

A horse which had been allowed to go at large got on the electric railway bridge at the head of King street yesterday evening and fell through the ties. The horse finally extricated itself and jumped into the ditch below.

The tender of a locomotive which had just "stalled" last night in the new round house at the Southern Railway depot became detached and running off the track fell into the pit alongside the turntable.

In addition to all seasonable produce Mr. B. H. Jenkins, of the southeast corner of Duke and Fairfax streets, has some of the finest tomatoes seen in this city this year. They were grown in Texas.

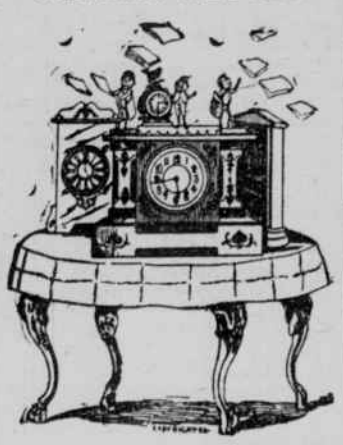

In the Corporation Court today in the case of David S. Harper vs. Emma Heynes, a decree was entered removing the case from the docket with leave to replead.

The committee on light met last night and made their final examination of the accounts of the works for the year. Some routine business was also transacted.

CIGARS.

That Our Cigars Have been kept up to the standard is shown by the fact that we have not changed our principal brands for years, which is the best proof and evidence to be produced to substantiate the above assertion. If there is any inferior tobacco used in a Cigar, the smoker will detect it instantly, and you cannot convince him by argument, or any other way, that such is not the case.

Our PLANTATION, CHOICE, CROOK and PERFECTO Cigars have stood the test, and are the equal of any other cigar produced for the money.
